Benazir Undergraduate Scholarship:

Mainly public sector universities. Some selected private universities may be included. Check HEC website for current list.

Pakistan Baitul Maal:

Any recognized institution in Pakistan including both public and private universities.

SECTION B: HOW FAMILY INCOME IS CALCULATED

Income calculation rules for scholarship applications:

1. Total monthly income of FATHER or guardian is counted.
2. If father is deceased, mother's income is counted.
3. If both parents are working, COMBINED income is counted.
4. Agriculture income is also included in total income.
5. Rental income from any property is also counted.
6. Business income must be declared honestly.
7. Income limit for HEC NBS and Ehsaas: below Rs. 45,000 per month.
8. Income certificate must be signed by a BPS-17 government officer or above.
9. False income declaration can result in permanent scholarship cancellation and legal action.

SECTION C: MINIMUM CGPA REQUIREMENTS

Minimum CGPA required to GET and KEEP each scholarship:

HEC Need-Based Scholarship (NBS):

- Minimum CGPA to apply: No minimum for first application.
- Minimum CGPA to KEEP scholarship: 2.0 each semester.

Ehsaas Undergraduate Scholarship:

- Minimum CGPA to apply: No minimum for first application.
- Minimum CGPA to KEEP scholarship: 2.0 each semester.

PM Laptop Scheme:

- Minimum CGPA to GET laptop: 3.0 or above.
- This is merit-based so higher CGPA means better chance.

SEEF Sindh Scholarship:

- Minimum CGPA to apply: 2.5 recommended.
- Minimum CGPA to KEEP scholarship: 2.5 each semester.

Sindh Merit Scholarship:

- Minimum marks in Intermediate: 75 percent or above.
- Minimum CGPA to KEEP scholarship: 2.5 each semester.

Benazir Undergraduate Scholarship:

- Maintain satisfactory academic performance each semester.

Pakistan Baitul Maal:

- Satisfactory academic record required for renewal.

SECTION D: CAN YOU RECEIVE TWO SCHOLARSHIPS TOGETHER

Scholarship combination rules:

ALLOWED combinations:

- HEC NBS + PM Laptop Scheme = ALLOWED
- Ehsaas Scholarship + PM Laptop Scheme = ALLOWED
- SEEF Scholarship + PM Laptop Scheme = ALLOWED
- University own scholarship + PM Laptop Scheme = ALLOWED

NOT ALLOWED combinations:

- HEC NBS + Ehsaas Scholarship = NOT ALLOWED (only one at a time)
- HEC NBS + Benazir Scholarship = NOT ALLOWED
- Ehsaas + Benazir = NOT ALLOWED
- SEEF + HEC NBS = Usually NOT ALLOWED (check with university)
- Two government scholarships simultaneously = Generally NOT ALLOWED

Important Note:

PM Laptop Scheme is considered a one-time in-kind benefit (a laptop, not cash) so it can usually be combined with other need-based scholarships. Always confirm with your university Financial Aid Office before applying for two scholarships.

SECTION E: WHAT HAPPENS IF CGPA DROPS BELOW MINIMUM

Rules when CGPA falls below required minimum:

- Step 1: Scholarship is SUSPENDED for that semester immediately.
- Step 2: Student receives an official warning from university.
- Step 3: Student gets ONE probation semester to recover CGPA.
- Step 4: If CGPA recovers in next semester, scholarship is RESUMED.

Step 5: If CGPA does not recover after probation, scholarship is CANCELLED permanently and cannot be reapplied.

Step 6: Student must inform HEC or SEEF immediately when CGPA drops.

Step 7: Hiding CGPA drop and continuing to receive scholarship is considered fraud and can lead to legal action.

Important: Medical or family emergencies can be presented as reason for CGPA drop. Supporting documents must be submitted to university Financial Aid Office for consideration.

SECTION F: APPLICATION FREQUENCY FOR EACH SCHOLARSHIP

How often you need to apply for each scholarship:

HEC Need-Based Scholarship (NBS):

Apply ONCE at the start of degree program.

Scholarship is renewed automatically each semester

if CGPA remains 2.0 or above and financial need continues.

Annual re-verification of financial documents may be required.

Ehsaas Undergraduate Scholarship:

Apply ONCE per academic year.

Annual re-verification required each year.

Financial need and NSER registration verified every year.

PM Laptop Scheme:

Apply ONCE per phase when government announces the scheme.

Not an annual scholarship. One laptop per student lifetime.

Cannot apply again in a future phase if already received laptop.

SEEF Sindh Scholarship:

Apply each academic year (annually).

New application and documents required every year.

Academic performance reviewed before renewal each year.

Sindh Merit Scholarship:

Apply each academic year.

Merit must be maintained for annual renewal.

Pakistan Baitul Maal:

Apply each year at district office.

Home visit verification conducted annually.

SECTION G: PRIVATE UNIVERSITY STUDENTS ELIGIBILITY GUIDE

Complete guide for students studying in private universities:

FULLY ELIGIBLE - Private university students CAN apply:

1. HEC Need-Based Scholarship (NBS)

Condition: Must be on MERIT seat, not self-finance seat.

2. Ehsaas Undergraduate Scholarship

Condition: Family registered in NSER, income below Rs. 45,000.

3. PM Laptop Scheme

Condition: CGPA 3.0 or above. University must be in approved list.

4. Pakistan Baitul Maal

Condition: Orphan or extremely poor family.

5. SEEF Sindh Scholarship

Condition: Must have Sindh domicile and PRC certificate.

NOT ELIGIBLE - Private university students CANNOT apply:

1. Sindh Merit Scholarship - Public universities only.
2. Sindh Talent Scholarship - Board top position holders only, mainly for public university students.
3. Benazir Undergraduate Scholarship - Mainly public universities.
Private students generally not included.

Special Note for Iqra University Students:

Iqra University is HEC recognized. Students admitted on merit seat are eligible for HEC NBS and Ehsaas scholarships.

Students admitted on self-finance seat are NOT eligible for HEC NBS.

Check your admission letter to confirm your seat type.

SECTION H: MERIT SEAT VS SELF FINANCE SEAT EXPLANATION

What is Merit Seat:

Admission given based on academic marks and entry test score.

Student competes with others and gets selected on merit.

Merit seat students ARE ELIGIBLE for HEC and government scholarships.

What is Self Finance Seat:

Admission given by paying a higher fee regardless of marks.

Student pays extra amount to secure admission.

Self finance seat students are NOT ELIGIBLE for HEC NBS and most government need-based scholarships.

How to check your seat type:

Look at your original admission letter from university.

If it says Merit then you are on merit seat.

If it says Self Finance or Self Support you are on self finance seat.

You can also check with your university admissions office.

Important Warning:

Most students at private universities in Pakistan are admitted on self-finance seats. This makes them ineligible for HEC NBS.

However they can still apply for Ehsaas scholarship if family is registered in NSER and income criteria is met.

Always check your seat type before applying.

A: You can apply for HEC Need-Based Scholarship, Ehsaas Scholarship, PM Laptop Scheme (if CGPA 3.0 plus), SEEF Sindh Scholarship, and Pakistan Baitul Maal if you are orphan or very poor.

Q: My father earns Rs. 40,000 per month. Am I eligible for HEC NBS?

A: Yes. Your family income is below the Rs. 45,000 limit.

You are eligible to apply for HEC NBS and Ehsaas scholarship.

Q: My father earns Rs. 60,000 per month. Am I eligible for HEC NBS?

A: No. Your family income is above the Rs. 45,000 limit.

You are not eligible for HEC NBS or Ehsaas scholarship.

You may still apply for PM Laptop Scheme if your CGPA is 3.0 plus.

Q: I have 3.5 CGPA. Which scholarships can I get?

A: You are eligible for PM Laptop Scheme (requires 3.0 plus CGPA).

If you also have financial need you can apply for HEC NBS and Ehsaas.

If you have Sindh domicile you can apply for SEEF scholarship.

Q: Can I apply for scholarship in my first semester?

A: Yes. HEC NBS and Ehsaas accept applications from first semester.

PM Laptop requires at least 2 completed semesters with 3.0 CGPA.

Q: I am on self-finance seat at a private university. Can I get HEC scholarship?

A: No. HEC NBS and Ehsaas require merit seat admission.

Self-finance seat students are not eligible for these scholarships.

Q: I do not have Sindh domicile. Which scholarships can I apply for?

A: Without Sindh domicile you cannot apply for SEEF or Sindh government scholarships. You can still apply for HEC NBS, Ehsaas, PM Laptop, and Pakistan Baitul Maal which are federal scholarships.

Q: Is Iqra University student eligible for merit based scholarship?

A: Iqra University is HEC recognized. Students on merit seat at Iqra can apply for HEC NBS and Ehsaas scholarship. For PM Laptop Scheme, Iqra has been included in selected phases. Students should check the current phase list at hec.gov.pk. Students on self-finance seat at Iqra are not eligible for HEC NBS.

Q: What is the deadline for HEC NBS scholarship?

A: HEC NBS deadline is usually announced in October to November each year for the Fall semester. Check hec.gov.pk for exact current deadline.

Q: How much money will I get from HEC NBS?

A: HEC NBS covers your full tuition fee paid directly to university. You also receive Rs. 3,000 per month stipend if you are a day scholar or Rs. 5,000 per month if you live in hostel.

Q: Can I get scholarship if my father has died?

A: Yes. Pakistan Baitul Maal is specifically for orphans.

For HEC NBS and Ehsaas, your mother's income will be counted.

If mother's income is below Rs. 45,000 you are eligible.

Orphan status may give you priority in SEEF scholarship.

Q: I received HEC NBS last semester but my CGPA dropped to 1.8. What happens?

A: Your scholarship will be suspended this semester.

You have one probation semester to bring CGPA back to 2.0 or above.

If you recover, scholarship resumes. If not, it is cancelled permanently.

Inform your university Financial Aid Office immediately.
